

Election Day Nears

Many Races to be Decided

Only a few weeks left until Election Day. There are several important local, statewide, and national races. The race for the President of the United States will be decided. Also a new Senator from California will be sent to Washington. Several statewide Congressional races will also be decided.

There are also several ballot questions on this year's ballot. They range from the legalization of marijuana to prisons to taxes. It is important to read all the information on these measures and not rely on advertisements.

Register to Vote

The deadline to register, October 23, 2016 is fast approaching so check with the registrar of voters to see if you are registered to vote and learn your polling location. It will soon be the day that we decide if we are "Stronger together" or if we will, "Make America great again."
